Frazier Arms Museum, Louisville, KY

There are all kinds of museums, each showcasing different items in unique, creative ways. And frankly, many of these items are masterpieces. Whereas museums may be totally dissimilar in what they have to offer, they all have one thing in common: heavy foot-traffic on a daily basis from visitors. That's why a masterpiece terrazzo floor is the ideal choice for museums. Ten times stronger than concrete, highly decorative and easy to maintain... a professional terrazzo installation will last virtually forever. Terrazzo should be chosen for every museum, everywhere. The most ancient of all floor coverings, it is enduring... and, endearing.
